Looking to make a political statement and look good at the same time?

Wearing union-made clothes says a lot about your values. We don't have to join the global "race to the bottom." We can buy clothes not made in sweatshops.

Union-made clothes do exist, and ordering them is as easy as surfing the Web.

Here are just some of the home pages for union-made clothing:

SweatX Clothes: www.sweatx.net

Justice Clothing Company: www.justiceclothing.com

Union Jeans and Apparel Co: www.unionjeancompany.com

Union Line and Graybear: www.unionmadeclothing.com

Cape Shoe Company: www.capeshoe.com/about.html

Check back with these Web sites frequently to find sales and special offers.

You'll feel good. You'll feel good. You'll look good. And most importantly, you'll be doing good.
